Strategy first. Content that ships.

I'm a digital marketing strategist working across tech, healthcare, fintech and home services. My work starts before the first post: understanding the business, the audience and the opportunity, then turning that into a clear system a team can execute every week.

My background in Mobile Computing helps me understand products the way developers do, and my work as an internationally published author shapes how I write: real people, real problems, no inflated claims.

01

Building a marketing engine from zero

Client: AI software agency targeting the Gulf market

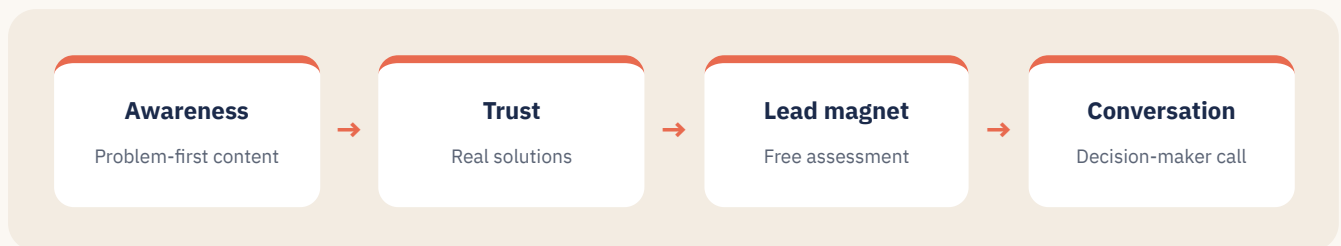

THE CHALLENGE

A capable tech company with no marketing structure: no unified identity, no defined audience and no path from attention to sales conversations.

WHAT I DID

- Positioned the brand and wrote its verbal identity and tagline.
- Grouped six services into two clear marketing categories.
- Built a 60-day plan across six platforms with one daily topic adapted per platform.
- Designed a LinkedIn-led B2B funnel with a free Digital Transformation Assessment as lead magnet.

DELIVERABLES

✓ Full marketing strategy

✓ Brand system

✓ 60-day content plan

✓ B2B funnel

02

Search-first content for a healthcare brand

Client: Pediatric rehabilitation center, Saudi Arabia

THE CHALLENGE

Valuable educational content that never reached the parents who were actively searching for it.

WHAT I DID

- Mapped the most-searched Arabic terms parents use on TikTok in the region.
- Introduced a 60/30/10 awareness-trust-conversion framework.
- Locked a fixed weekly schedule of seven formats so production became predictable.
- Rule: the searched term goes in the hook and repeats in the script.

WORK SAMPLE

Day	Format
Sat	Motion graphics
Sun	AI video
Mon	Carousel
Tue	Expert video
Thu	Interactive expert video
Fri	Poster

DELIVERABLES

✓ Arabic TikTok keyword map

✓ Weekly format system

✓ 30-day calendars

✓ Performance reports

03

Diagnosing a TikTok account that wasn't working

Client: Tech company targeting the UAE

THE CHALLENGE

Regular posting with almost no traction, and no one knew why.

WHAT I DID

- Audited reach, watch time, traffic sources and audience geography.
- Found that much of the reach came from outside the target country because of publishing settings.
- Identified weak openings, scattered topics and four competing visual styles.
- Rebuilt the plan around one product story, one visual template and a real movement in the first two seconds.

WORK SAMPLE

Problem	Decision
Wrong audience geography	Unified publishing settings
Drop-off in 2 seconds	Open with real movement
Scattered topics	One story line per week
Mixed visual styles	One fixed template

DELIVERABLES

✓ Diagnostic report

✓ Root-cause list

✓ Corrective content plan

✓ New production rules

04

Pre-launch campaign tied to a real milestone

Client: Home maintenance services startup

THE CHALLENGE

A brand-new platform with no audience that needed to be known before launch day.

WHAT I DID

- Designed a four-week teaser arc: problem, pain, solution hint, brand reveal.
- Landed the reveal on the startup's graduation from a Dubai business accelerator.
- Planned coverage with no faces or voices, plus a phone-photo backup plan.
- Produced two versions of the closing post for the startup and its developer.

WORK SAMPLE

DELIVERABLES

✓ 4-week campaign arc

✓ Weekly production scripts

✓ Event shot list

✓ Dual-brand content
